Pictorialism is an international style and aesthetic movement that dominated photography during the later 19th and early 20th centuries. There is no standard definition of the term, but in general it refers to a style in which the photographer has somehow manipulated what would otherwise be a straightforward photograph as a means of "creating" an image rather than simply recording it.

After watching the radar on Tuesday, it became clear that the weather was not cooperating! It was going from bad to worse! In the best interest and safety of our members (there was thunder and lightening), the decision was made to postpone the final day of our tournament. The final day will now be played next week, Tuesday, March 19th, at Desert Springs.
