A summary of the doctrine of... "DYING TO SELF" by Dr. D. W. Ekstrand. Printable pdf Version of this Study The essence of a being's "existence" has to do with the fact that he is a "living reality"-- if one no longer has or the functions of vitality, they are said to "no longer exist." So, the essence of "death" is the absence of "life" "therefore when one dies "one ceases ...

Quite a few theologies take humanity as their starting point. I can understand why, since theology is human work - our human reflections on the big issues of life. However, I have chosen to pick up the doctrine of humanity (theological anthropology) only in this seventh essay. I believe our reflections up to now have given us
